C of C Seminar Set for Friday

All businessmen in and around Hancock County are invited to attend a seminar to be conducted at Coast Electric meeting room on North Main Bay St. Louis, on Friday June 13th, 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon, dealing with the "Truth-in-Lending" law that will go into effect July 1, 1969.

This law will effect the retail, lending agencies, banks and other concerns having revolving or installment credit policies in their organization.

Dan H. Walker, a spokesman and attorney, will be available from the Federal Trade Commission to answer any questions concerning the implementation of this Public Law No. 90-321. Walker is a native of South Louisiana and has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Economics from McNeese State College, Lake Charles, Louisiana. He also has a Juris Doctor Degree from Loyola University Law School in New Orleans, La. In addition he has spent several years as a personnel director of large corporations and practiced law in Louisiana for several years. He was recently employed by the Federal Trade Commission as an attorney to monitor the "Truth-in-Lending" law for the state of Mississippi.

Clyde J. Fitzpatrick, chief procurement and management assistance director of the Small Business Administration will also be present. He attended Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, Pa., majoring in mechanical engineering. He has been employed by the U.S. Government for 30 years - the last nine with the Small Business Administration.

After July 1, 1969, almost all credit transactions between retailer and customer will be subject to the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, a law whose stated purpose is to assure "a meaningful disclosure of credit terms so that the consumer will be able to compare more readily the various credit terms available to him and avoid the unformed use of credit."

The new law covers "consumer credit," credit for goods or services extended to a person (not another business) primarily for personal, family, household or agricultural purposes. The definition requires that a finance charge is, or may be, imposed on the transaction. In addition, any credit transaction payable in more than four installments is covered. This seminar is being sponsored by Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and co-sponsored by Small Business Administration, Federal Trade Commission, Retail Merchants Association and others at no charge.

A four-hour County School Board meeting ended as it began last Friday--with a continuing stalemate between County Superintendent Eugene Ladner and Robert Clapp, principal of Hancock North Central High School. Although the two were in accord on the hiring of three teachers out of the required six, the now old deadlock remained on three positions.

In the latter issue, Clapp and Ladner were asked, minutes before the meeting's recess, if they would be willing to put education ahead of all else and attempt to resolve the conflict. Clapp's reply was "Yes," Ladner answered, "I don't think so--not this morning."

Recommended by Clapp, approved by Ladner, and passed on by the board were Terrell Randolph, senior high social studies teacher and varsity football coach; Berlin Ladner, junior high mathematics and science teacher; and Guy Neil Smith, senior high mathematics and driver education teacher. Still in question were positions which have been filled by Roland Ladner, basketball coach and geometry teacher; D. J. Martin, agriculture teacher; and Ezell Lee, driver education teacher and director of transportation. Board action was postponed on the hiring of a fourth first-grade teacher, pending fall enrollment, and the re-hiring of the business education teacher, pending the board's decision on whether or not to discontinue business education courses which include shorthand, bookkeeping, secretarial office procedures, and general business.

Also approved were summer school schedules for Hancock North Central and senior high teachers for the summer session. Miss Romana Hode, English; and Ezell Lee, social studies. Contrary to the system previously used, the board directed the principal to deliver all monies collected for summer school fees to the office of the superintendent of education for deposit and disbursement.

In other action, Mrs. Nell Borman, secretary at Gulfview

City-County Public Library To Open at New Location

City-County Public Library will reopen for business at its new location, Dunbar and Ulman Avenues at 9 a.m. Monday, June 16, Mrs. Watson Prindiville, coordinator of the library program, announced this week. Formal opening ceremonies will take place later on.

Transfer of equipment and books from the former quarters on Court Street began last Monday, June 2, and that phase of the move has now been completed. About 20,000 volumes remain, however, in the old library building on Court Street and that work will start next week when additional shelving is in place, Mrs. Prindiville said.

The county board of supervisors provided two trucks and seven men on alternating days last week to assist with the task while the city of Bay St. Louis furnished one truck and three men one day. That was the extent of adult volunteer labor on the job.

A group of junior high students, whom Mrs. Prindiville termed "truly remarkable", did almost everything else. They were Dobbie Johnston, 15, a 10th grader; Loo Rutherford, 14, in the ninth grade; Hiedi Hohmann, 13, and Lisa White, 13, both in the eighth grade. The coordinator said Lisa was the mainstay of the girls. Big helping hands also came from Alan Crutten and Steve Mueller, the latter of Pass Christian Island.

Three 10-year-olds also appeared last week to pitch in. They were Stephen Carvor, Henry LaFontaine and Terry Oliver. All are in the fifth grade.

Now assisting for several days is Mrs. Catherine Stanley who has been studying library science at Jeff Davis Junior College and will enroll this fall at the University of Miami, Fla. For the present library hours will be 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 12 noon Saturday. Later on the staff hopes to provide evening hours.

Miss Doris Busch Librarian at Valena C. Jones High School also gave professional help in shelving the books and overseeing the work of the non-professional volunteers.

Cpl. Thomas Williams

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Williams received word Tuesday morning June 10, 1969, that their son Corporal Thomas Joseph Williams age 22, was killed in action in Viet Nam June 5, 1968.

He was with the 112th INF. Co. D, 4th INF. DIV. Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending the arrival of the remains in Bay St. Louis

Air Force Eyes Hancock Jet-Field

Student pilots being trained at the United States Air Force of Keesler AFB, Biloxi, soon be practicing landings and take-offs at the new Hancock County jet-age air-mer, Jr., port commissioner. Mirehouse, backed up by Major Henry Smith of Keesler AFB, outlined flying procedures and told of additional equipment to be supplied to the field by his command. Included would be a fire and crash vehicle, traffic control trailer, and some communications equipment and operators.

All equipment would be available to civilian traffic utilizing the field during the day and, according to Mirehouse, all Air Force traffic would be kept clear when other aircraft are in motion.

Although receptive to the idea, port commissioners, under whose jurisdiction the airport comes, tabled the proposal late last week until hearing from other airports involved in the training program.

BAND CAKE SALE
The Tiger Band Boosters will have a cake sale on Saturday June 14 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Tables will be set up at Winn-Dixie, A & P Food Store, Jitney Jungle and on Coleman Ave. Proceeds will be used to help finance Bay High Summer Band Camp.

Loyola Professors to Study Airport Needs

Arthur Rayhawk of Loyola University, New Orleans, has been given the green light by the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission to undertake a "reliever airport" feasibility study for the new county jet-age flying facility.

Rayhawk, a professor of marketing and chairman of the marketing department, College of Business Administration at Loyola, will be assisted in the study by W. Wilson Ellis and James Foster. Ellis is an associate professor of management and Foster an assistant professor of marketing and management, both at the same educational institution.

The purpose of the study is to show in what direction the port commission can best travel to achieve its aims in obtaining the new classification from the Federal Aviation Agency.

Rayhawk will study existing reports and projections of air traffic at Molokai and Lalo Front fields in New Orleans; check the volume of air traffic of all types at both locations; check the physical facilities, actual and planned; land transportation requirements; and preliminary requirements and apparent customers for the Hancock facility from all related sources.

His documented report to the commission, a situation study and analysis, will cover all aspects from 1960 to date and contain projections to 1975.

When designated a "reliever airport" the Hancock field will be listed in an upper grade of federal funding programs.

Hancock County Reports...

About three weeks ago, Russell Elliott, Charles Russ, III, president and vice president of the board of supervisors respectively, and Charles Hill, county port director, went to Jackson, Miss., to see what was possible in the line of state and federal funds for park developments.

Among the agencies contacted were the Research and Development Center, the Pearl River Basin Development District office, the Mississippi Parkway Commission, and the like.

All agencies were asked the same question, "What can you do to aid us in Hancock County to develop recreational facilities, parks, and large and small marinas?"

The comptroller, or money man, of the parkway commission advised the pair that funds were available for such purposes due to a failure of other counties to come up with matching funds on planned park projects.

The snag was however that application for the money must be made before June 20, 1969 to qualify in the 1968 allocations.

As the amount available came to $65,000, Elliott and Hill called a few crash sessions and rounded up a horde of draftsmen to start preparing plans.

The board of supervisors covered the topics number one on the agenda at their next gathering and, as a result, the Jackson Ridge recreation project got a tremendous boost forward.

The port commission, under whose auspices water oriented recreational facilities fall, endorsed the plan last week, and outlined the sequence they intended to follow in the overall recreational development plan.

First of all, back to the Jackson Ridge project. The board of supervisors has agreed to utilize the monies raised from a one mill tax levy, made last year for recreational purposes, as their share of a $135,000 purchase price for the north half of Jackson Ridge, from the 18th Section boundary line to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad tracks. The state parkway dollars, which must be utilized for land acquisition, will pay the difference.

Involved in the complete facility are lakes, a marina, launching ramps, camping and trailer grounds, concession area, and picnic grounds.

Improvement construction funds may be forthcoming from applications now made, or are in the process of being made, to the United States Parks Commission, Pearl River Basin Development District, Department of Housing and Urban Development, U. S. Corps of Engineers, and the county port and harbor commission.

Although, on the surface, it appears to be a multiplicity of funding agencies, each has its purpose and role in overall development.

Whatever funding is possible the county intends to develop the ridge in phases. This means that as each phase is completed it will become immediately available for public use, without restriction.

According to Elliott, the first complete phase will be of immediate advantage to both present and future users of the ridge, the removal of the garbage dump!

The 16th Section lands, also to be included in the recreational development, have been leased to the county proper by the county school board for 99 years.

The Bayou Caddy project was originally outlined last month. This item is also in the priority list.

Basically, the U. S. Corps of Engineers is going to dredge the bayou from the eight-foot depth contour of Mississippi Sound to provide an eight by 100-foot entrance channel. From there the channel is to be eight by 80-feet for about 1,900 feet down the bayou to a turning basin also to be eight-feet deep. Beyond that point the channel will continue at a six-foot depth by 60-foot width for a further 1,750 feet, to another turning basin. This dredging has been estimated by the Army to be worth $125,000.

These funds are not expected to be allocated until fiscal year 1971.

However, by that time the county has to be ready to put 33 percent of first construction costs amounting to $29,000 on the barrel head, and acquire all lands required for easements, rights, spoils, and the like, as well as make ready dikes, bulkheads, and embankments where such are necessary.

The county, under the terms of the agreement, has to supply public docks and wharves, with fuel, fresh water, and other shore-side facilities, at both turning basins, and provide for access roads, marinas, slips and mooring facilities, as needed for both transient and local vessels.

Two other marine oriented facilities are also under consideration, a well as the public wharf, docks, launching ramp, and picnic area, at the Mulatto Bayou port and harbor undertaking.

One is at Jourdan River, to serve the mid-north county area, and here, before improvements can be made, the county will have to purchase all lands involved.

The Pearlington project, is last on the list due to its close proximity to Mulatto Bayou and will involve lands already owned by the county, adjacent to the East Pearl River, as well as a new county property still to be purchased. Improvements at both Jourdan River and Pearlington will include marinas, concessions, picnic grounds, etc.

Inquiries to this column are invited and should be addressed to Neville R. Jacob, public relations officer, Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission, P.O. Box 89, Bay St. Louis, Miss. 39520.

General Election
Light Vote Record

In the main voters at the general election last week seemed to adopt the "no-hum" attitude prevalent in most general elections here by casting less than 500 votes for the unopposed candidates, Warren Carter for Mayor; Bill Fribble and Andro Arceneaux for City Commissioners.

This light vote in spite of the fact that over 2,000 votes were cast in both the primary and run-off elections, a record for such elections.

Looking back at the two previous city general elections it is noted that 613 votes were cast in 1964 after a primary drawing 966 votes. Possibly this larger vote was caused by a proposition on the ticket increasing the salaries of the mayor and city commissioners which carried.

A then record of 1419 votes was cast in the 1961 primary followed by a probable all-time low of only 46 votes in the general election.

School Crisis...

School, was recommended and approved for employment in the superintendent's office from June 1 through August 31 during the absence of the regular secretary; and authorization was given for advertisement of bids for supplies for county schools for the coming year.

Discussed, but postponed for later action, were building expansion requirements at Hancock North Central, and policy revisions for rent and utilities in housing provided for Hancock North Central teachers.

Attended by all five board members and their attorney, Rep. Walter James Phillips; Clapp; Ladner; Board of Supervisors President Russell Elliott; and a small army of irate parents, the Friday meeting was a recess meeting called after lack of a quorum at the previous meeting at which only Horace (Red) Davis and Eric Larsen were present.

Passing a resolution urging Clapp and Ladner to settle their differences, the board states that it is powerless to remedy the situation as the law now reads, and as expressed in a Supreme Court decision and an opinion by the State Attorney General, and that it has done "everything possible." "We have met nights, we have met mornings, unless the recommendation comes to this board through the superintendent, our hands are tied."

Referring to the law which offers no recourse in these situations, Rep. Phillips expressed regret over lack of foresight on the part of the Legislature in passing such a bill, and his intentions to initiate passage of a measure which will give the school board the power to break a stalemate in the coming July 22 Special Session of the Legislature. Meanwhile, he cautioned board members that to act contrary to the Attorney General's opinion would subject them to individual liability, with the State no longer responsible for their defense.

During the meeting, Board of Supervisors President Elliott stated that his presence was in response to a request from Governor Williams to intercede and work the impasse out on a local level, and because "we (the Board of Supervisors) were concerned about the general welfare of the county, fully aware that under the law, there is nothing we can do." Elliott noted that he has never taken sides in the issue, and that he was "interested in results—not history." He also noted that the Governor has stated that if a solution cannot be worked out locally, he (Gov. Williams) will "personally take it under advisement and send an investigative committee in."

Clapp stated that although there is no possibility of his recommending Martin and Ladner to the superintendent, he will accept them on his teaching staff in the 1969-70 session, provided the superintendent approve his recommendation of Lee. The second compromise offered by Clapp was to take all back on the faculty or none. "It would be a difficult situation if they were all brought back, but it could be resolved," said Clapp. Ladner, however, rejected both proposals.

Clapp has previously stated that his reasons for not recommending Roland Ladner and D. J. Martin were for "lack of cooperation and failure to support the entire school program." The superintendent's firm rejection of Ezell Lee is said to be "insubordination." Clapp also added that he has a number of qualified applicants for each of the three positions over which the controversy rages, should Ladner agree to dismiss all three teachers. "I want to resolve it," said Clapp.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: It should be noted that the issues which have roused the public's ire, and which were editorialized in last week's issue of the Sea Coast Echo, refer only to the County School Board and the Hancock North Central High School affair, and should not be construed to be reflections on any of the other schools in the county school system.)

Sheriff Fred Curet
Attends Convention

The first convention of the Mississippi Sheriffs' Association which drew state-wide participation closed Tuesday, May 27, at Tupelo, Hancock County Sheriff W. A. Fred Curet who is Southern Vice-President of the association was in attendance. Tallahatchie County Sheriff E. K. Dogan is President with Johnny Taylor, Marshal County Sheriff and Paul Barrett, Sheriff of Warren County Vice-Presidents for the Northern and Central Districts respectively.

Featured speakers were William Spurrier, 20-year sheriff of Marengo, Iowa; Ferris E. Lucas of Washington, executive director of the National Sheriffs' Association; Circuit Judge N. S. Sweet, Jr., of Corinth and Ken Farley, public relations director for Mississippi administration of the Omnibus Crime Control and Street Safety Act.

Sheriff Spurrier commended the Mississippi Law Enforcement Academy at Jackson and said, "training is the only way we in law enforcement can cope with what we know is coming and what is already here." He urged the use of all training programs.

Director Lucas spoke very favorably of Mississippi sheriffs for their work in maintaining the lowest crime rate in the nation and pointed out Mississippi's 2.1 per cent decrease in crimes.

Joseph diBenedetto Receives

Bankers Certificate June 13

Joseph V. diBenedetto, FDIC Bank Examiner, of Bay St. Louis, whose office is in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, is among 244 bankers to receive certificates at graduation ceremonies Friday, June 13, ending the 20th annual session of the school of Banking of the South. The School meets for two weeks each summer at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, under sponsorship of 15 Southern state bankers' associations.

During its existence, the School has now awarded certificates to 2,447 bankers. "Our objectives are to improve the quality of banking by helping to make better bankers," Orrin Swayze, director of the School, stated. He is the retired executive vice-president of First National Bank, Jackson, Miss.

The course requires attendance at LSU summer sessions for three years, during which student bankers receive 180 hours of classroom instruction, 30 hours of review, organized evening study, and written final examinations. Aditionally, home study problems must be completed between sessions.

Organized to provide advanced study in all phases of banking and economics, the School gathers together a faculty of 100 top banking leaders, businessmen, economists, and educators. Bankers accepted for the course must meet strict requirements on their previous education, experience and present responsibilities.

"We are proud of the men and women who complete this course," Mr. Swayze said. It gives practicing bankers opportunity to sharpen up their knowledge of banking skills, not only for the benefit of their local communities, but for the continued growth of the entire Southern region."

LETTING 'EM OFF EASY

It's difficult to condemn any man who deliberately releases some of his catch. But, too frequently, the end result is the same as if these particular fish had been kept for the skillet.

"Good intentions" in releasing fish are not enough, say the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards.

Knowing how and when are equally important.

Fish should never be freed after being deep- or foul-hooked in such a manner that serious wounds result. As a rule, the use of bait causes most incidents of deeply hooked fish that cannot be extracted without inflicting injuries to vital organs.

Even hooks that are down to the gullet can be removed without damage, provided the angler exercises care and uses a hook disgorger. A pair of long-nosed pliers, common in many tackle boxes, will usually do the trick. When such pliers are not carried, a disgorger is mandatory.

An efficient disgorger can be made from a strip of metal or plastic with a vee-shaped notch cut in the end. A hacksaw blade works well, and an old toothbrush handle is equally effective.

To use the disgorger, simply slip the notch into the bend of the hook, push down and back.

Regardless of the fish involved, if you intend to release him, make certain he has a good chance of recovering.

Officials Visit Local Ruins

Two archaeologists from Department of Archives and History, Jackson, recently visited in the wreckage of a B.C. period Indian settlement and sadly shook their heads.

During their solemn examinations and unaware of a little state law forbidding such activities, diggers of all bents and vices went to their work with vigor in an attempt to unearth some item of historic interest for their home market.

Richard Marshall, director, Mississippi Archaeological Society, led his colleagues, John Lowry, a surveyor, and field archaeologist about the site digging up relics that to the trained eye were of no interest.

Marshall uttered one word as he walked the area.

"Ruined!"

Accompanying the group was C. Lowry, president, Gulf Chapter, Mississippi Archaeological Assn., who has organized digging has taken place at the site over the years.

With much of his collection on display in the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, he had saved countless items for viewing by future generations.

HERB BARON, LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN TURNS THEIR NEW '69 IMPALA SEDAN OVER TO MR. H. W. WHEAT AND SON JOEY OF GULFPORT.

Mr. H.W. Wheat of Gulfport shopped all over the Coast for a new car and was told by a good friend to try Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis. The reason Mr. Wheat bought from Herb Baron, Lamar-Lane Chevrolet salesman is because he was able to save money on the very good deal given him on his new '69 Impala Sedan. Mr. Wheat being from out of state just moving to Gulfport was surprised that there was such a big car dealer in a small town like Bay St. Louis. He knows that one of the main reasons for Lamar-Lane Chevrolet being so big a dealership is because they give the best deals on new cars, trucks, and station wagons in this area. So if you're in the market for a car, truck or station wagon, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis and ask for Herb Baron, you too can save money. (A GERRY LANE ENTERPRISE) MR. H.W. WHEAT ADV. Mrs. Fred Wagner will serve as YMCA Chairman

Mrs. Fred Wagner of 116 Martine, Bay St. Louis will serve as YMCA chairman for Hancock County, according to an announcement from Owen Cooper, Yawco City, state chairman of the Y-Teen Golden Anniversary Fund drive.

MRS. FRED WAGNER

Mrs. Wagner will spearhead a campaign for funds and additional adult and Y-Teen members, said Mr. Cooper. The campaign is being held as part of the Golden Anniversary observance of the Mississippi YCA, sponsoring organization of 160 Y-Teen Clubs in the state. Mrs. Wagner is a native of Bay St. Louis and a graduate of the University of Mississippi. Her husband is an architect and they have two children, Lisa, 14, and Clay, 9. They are members of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Wagner is a member of the Bay-Waveland Junior High and for the past four years has served as the Women's Chairman for the Republican Party of the Fifth Congressional District.

The county chairman will be assisted by several members of a Y-Teen committee to be elected at an early date. Campaign materials will be distributed at a meeting to be announced by Mrs. Wagner.

A beautiful four-color brochure will be mailed out to the business and professional leadership of the state by campaign headquarters asking for contributions to the fund. These funds will enable the Mississippi Young Women's Christian Association to broaden its sponsorship of Y-Teen Clubs to more of the 125,000 young girls in Mississippi, according to Mr. Cooper.

"We adults must do something right away to give these young people trust and confidence in the age-old values of our Christian heritage; the Y-Teen opportunity offers a girl, when she needs it, guidance and inspiration for her worth as an individual and her importance in the world today," he said.

Under the Y-Teen program, the state YWCA offers the development of a Christian personality in a Christian society to 10,000 girls in nearly 100 secondary schools of the state. There are nearly 125,000 girls attending school in Mississippi through 12th grades of which not now receiving Y-Teen benefits.

Funds received will be used to broaden the influence of the Mississippi YWCA and Y-Teen program to more of these young girls; more women will be recruited to join the Mississippi YCA in order to provide personal and financial support and guidance, not only to the existing clubs but those that will start from this campaign.

In order to provide such program materials and services for a greater number of Mississippi's teenage girls, a professional staff will be hired as well as additional headquarters office space, furnishings, and equipment.

Another portion of the campaign goal of $230,000 will be used to make necessary additions and repairs to the YWCA at Macon, Camp Rock, so that more than 1,000 girls can receive the camping experience in a Christian setting each summer. The state sponsors 13 Y-Teen camps on a statewide and county basis that range from ten days in length.

A concentrated effort to raise funds and recruit new members will take place during June and July of this year; part of the current operating budget of the Mississippi YWCA is provided by some 26 community and organizations and membership dues.

The Mississippi YWCA has been sponsoring Y-Teen Clubs 50 years ago, although until 1948, these groups were known as the Y-Teen Reserves.

Over the years, more than 100,000 Mississippi girls have been influenced by the Christian Y-Teen program.

Shaw Assignment
Philip R. Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy C. Shaw, Jr., Perkinsville, Miss., was assigned with honors to the 1st Air Force as a flight controller.

A 1967 graduate of Hancock County Central High School, the young man is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw, Jr., Perkinsville.

MANY ATTENDED OPENING NIGHT OF THE NEW JAYCEE YOUTH CENTER

New Date Set For Camp Opening

The Hancock County United Fund Summer Camping Program at Camp Onward on the beach in Bay St. Louis will open on June 22nd instead of June 15th as originally planned. There will be six sessions for boys and girls eight to twelve years of age, and one for the thirteen to fifteen year group. Camp opens on Sunday afternoon and ends Friday morning. Quite a number of parents have already arranged to have their children attend. For information call Father George Heffner, Pastor of St. Rose de Lima Church, Peck Mauffray, James Drummond, William Tate, Jr., Mrs. V. J. Piazza or Mrs. Frank Lagarde.

For those who can pay, the fee is $15.00. The Hancock County United Fund will assume the expense for those unable to pay. Some families may be able to pay a part of the fee.

We are most fortunate to have Camp Onward in our Bay St. Louis City area. This camp is owned and operated by New Orleans Kingsley House, a greater New Orleans United Fund Agency. With its rustic buildings and wooded area, fronted on our beautiful sand beach, this camp has afforded happy vacations to hundreds of New Orleans children. Through the generosity of our Hancock County people, and their contributions to their United Fund we have been able to share these facilities with our Hancock County children.

Items of clothing, bedding and other camping requirements continue to come to the United Fund headquarters at 410 Carroll Avenue. The C.Y.O. group of Our Lady of the Gulf Church is financing and outfitting three children, and the Ladies of the Home Demonstration Club have worked on articles of clothing and bedding in need of repair. The good usable school clothing will be turned over to Mrs. Edo Dupree, County School Nurse, for our disadvantaged children. The Hancock County United Fund will continue to receive clothing for these children, especially good wearable shoes.

The Coast Advertising Club announced that Jack Different, Executive Director of the Gulf Regional Planning Commission, would be the featured speaker at the Club's luncheon meeting Friday June 13 at the Sun-Ni-Sand, Biloxi. He will present highlights of the Planning Commission's newly released Population and Economic Study.

This study, just released by the Commission, predicts that population along the Mississippi Coast will increase to 591,000 by the year 1990. The study goes into great detail in predicting the population and economy of the area twenty years from now.

Ad Club President C.C. Hamill said, "we urge all interested businessmen who want to hear this presentation to attend."

Jack Different is a native Mississippian and served with the Development Committee of the Greater Columbus (Ohio) and the New Orleans City Planning Commission prior to accepting the position as Executive Director of the Gulf Regional Planning Commission in 1965.

Debbie Weidman Receives Award

Hancock General Hospital Auxiliary met Thursday June 5, at the hospital and awarded a scholarship grant to Debbie Weidman, former Candy Weidman, who will enter Pearl River Junior College in September to begin study for a degree in nursing.

Mrs. A. S. Kleinpeter, President, thanked all who participated in Hospital Open House May 11. She also asked that members work toward recruiting new members. The Auxiliary badly needs more working members. With the increase in patient load the Auxiliary is needed daily on two shifts to assist in many ways.

This work is usually tiring, sometimes boring but always so rewarding. Every "little" task an Auxiliary member performs some load off the staff and helps to increase the efficiency of the hospital.

After a Forget-Me-Not luncheon new officers were elected for all groups and in the evening a banquet followed so cocktail hours.

On their trip the ladies visited Vicksburg with relatives Mrs. Cole.

Women Attend Auxiliary Convention

Mrs. Esther Cuevas and Genovio Cola attended the annual convention of Groups 20 and 38 of the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary in Jackson this past weekend. They were delegates to the convention.

After a banquet followed so cocktail hours.

On their trip the ladies visited Vicksburg with relatives Mrs. Cole.

John Rutherford Receives Degree

John David Rutherford, III, of Bay St. Louis was among 75 students who received doctor of medicine degree at the University Medical Center's 13th commencement on June 8.

When Dr. Rutherford completes his additional training, he will help relieve the critical shortage of doctors in Mississippi where more than half the counties have less than 10 physicians. Hancock County, for example, has one doctor for each 1,390 people, compared to the national average of one to 700.

Dr. Leon Jacobson, dean of the division of biological sciences at the University of Chicago Medical School, was speaker for the commencement ceremony, in Jackson's new city auditorium.

A NUMBER OF INNOVATIONS seem certain to insure success for the third annual Hancock County Fishing Roden. Being "fished with the weekend" will result from changing the date from the traditionally chill end of November to the balmy days of mid-June, almost a month before a similar event is scheduled in neighboring Hancock County.

MOVING THE LOCATION of outdoor headquarters to more centrally located Barchess Brothers Fishing Camp should increase the number of registrations, as it's equally accessible to boats, through always navigable Bayou Cadey, and cars via Lakeshore Road.

TWO ADDITIONS, the Blessing of the Fleet, to be performed by Rev. William Kelley, S.V.D., at 2 p.m. Saturday off the Lagoon pier, and the Square Dance Festival, beginning at sundown Friday, simultaneous with opening of the fishing competition, will undoubtedly attract a number who have little interest in angling, and true here-to-fore taken no part in the proceedings.

MUCH CREDIT is the original members of the Roden Association, for the most part, residents of Pearllington, who boldly began the promotion three years ago and have given freely of their time, labors and on occasion, cash, to get our own three day fishing show on the record, or more accurately, on the water, so to speak.

THE THIRD AND largest rodeo ball to date was held at Bay-Woelke Yacht Club Saturday night. Pretty Carol Whitman was crowned queen of the affair and her sponsor, Peck Manfrias, succeeded Ed Orte as king for 1969. Queen Carol and members of her court will be on hand to add a bit of politeness to all phases of the event.

A HUNGRY HORDE devoured mountains of barbecued chicken, hot dogs, baked beans, etc., when the 100-man strong Vandalia Civic Association tossed their annual cook-out on the corner of Coleman Avenue and the beach Saturday afternoon. Comfortable tables with benches were erected beneath the large oak trees and some who were still eating and/or drinking when your reporter finally arrived on the scene were Gerry and Sam Blanchard, Naomi and Hack Doyle, Margie and Charlie Powers, Ann and Bob Warner, Inger and John Felder, Linda and Tommy Kidd, Ann and Dan Ashman, Ora May and Connie Herlihy, Fred Bourgeois, Bea and Joe Damens, Fran and Bob Lucas, Paddy and Dave Johnson, Walter Crowley, Ann and Henry Devalle, Gail Webb, Georgina and Bob Tergerson, Nancy and Lucien Cox, etc. etc.

PROCEEDS FROM a dance to begin at 9 p.m. Saturday, June 14, at St. Clare's Parish Hall will benefit the school's athletic fund. Johnny Longo is general chairman of the affair and may be contacted for further particulars.

EVELYN AND BOB Schilling and their daughter Penny narrowly escaped being listed among Memorial Day Weekend statistics when involved in a serious traffic mishap while returning to their Waveland home on Sunday, May 31st. The family was first taken to Crosby Memorial in Playmate where Bob and Penny were given emergency treatment, and Evelyn was transferred to Hancock General where she was still confined suffering from fractures, abrasions and bruises, as of the third of the week.

JOAN AND AL Bernard celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary on June 2nd, in Joan's Hancock General Hospital room as she was recuperating from major surgery performed on May 27. She was released last Tuesday and says she's feeling fine although she has no idea when she'll be able to return to her favorite sport, bowling.

MARIE AND HAP Carter have returned home from Palestine, El. where they were guests of Marie's parents, Madeline and Roscoe Parker, and her sister, Madeline. During their visit they were entertained at a fish fry and poker game along the banks of the famed Wash River.

A GET WELL wish is on the way to Irma Levens who was ordered to spend at least a week in bed after experiencing a flare-up of the back injury she sustained in an automobile accident two years ago. Irma says the enforced bed rest is most frustrating as she has just moved into her new Sunset Boulevard home and is eager to complete interior decorating and lawn planting and landscaping.

GERRY AND BUDDIE Sullivan have just purchased a swimming pool and hot tub and are in celebration of the fact that they are returning to Waveland to make their home.

CAROLINE MAYER is very much the party girl and was the guest of honor at her first graduation. Cheryl and Gilbert Mendenhall, Jr. are the parents of little Carolyn who was born May 16, weighing seven pounds, three ounces. CHERRY AND CHARLIE Mendenhall are the parents.

MANY FRIENDS TO COME AND

BAND FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHTS

LOFF really enjoyed their recent visit as guests of Evelyn and Charlie Cox. They didn't get around as much as they had anticipated as son David came down with mono the day after they arrived to the Bay. The DeLafos, who now live in St. Louis, Mo., brought greetings from former residents Mary Lou and Clare Kistebans and Bea and Jim Nugent, who also now make their homes in St. Louis. It was difficult to realize that Gerry and Hal had been gone for almost three years until we saw the "baby", Jane, now a very grown-up little girl.

OUR JEANNIE, Jean Rutherford, Rose and John's oldest daughter who was for so many years our most faithful Teen Times reporter, will receive her degree from the Charity Hospital School of Radiologic Technology in New Orleans on June 28. Jeannie is just one of many local girls who first became interested in a medically oriented career as a Hancock General Hospital candy stripper.

SHIRLEY MRS. GENE Williams was the honoree at a going-away luncheon given last Saturday at the home of Sterling Bakaski. Hostesses Linda Mrs. Tommy Kidd, Naomi Mrs. Hack Doyle, Margie Mrs. Charles Powers, Dee Mrs. M.L. Lovison, Paddy Mrs. Cave Johnson and Bobbie Mrs. Henry Maggio appeared quite Hawaiian in bright hula, long sarongs. The food, prepared by Naomi, was deliciously exotic and the tropical rum punch packed such a wallop that many of the 160 wearing guests added some twists to the hula never seen on the sands of Waikiki.

DAVID SMITH, Kappy Clark's brand new husband, was our unluckiest bridegroom of the year, and maybe of the century, a word, David became quite ill on the day of the wedding, Saturday, May 31, and was admitted to Hancock General where he was confined to bed until time for the ceremony to begin. He was allowed to appear briefly at the reception, then it was back to the hospital where his doctor generously permitted a cot to be set up for his bride. We're happy to report that the newlamps are now enjoying a delayed honeymoon.

JANE AND BABBY Benvenutti dined at Haverly's Saturday p.m. and Jane looked most glamorous in a bright pink summer frock.

ALMA AND BOB Labry of New Orleans, weekendend at Club Lodge and "made the rounds" with Delores and Sonny Haas on Saturday. Bob, a graduate of St. Stanislaus, lived in Waveland during the years that Terrace Avenue was referred to as simply "the Terrace", and that was quite a while before it was named Sobral Boulevard.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE that we had to learn of a local tragedy through the Times-Picayune Sunday edition. But the fact that Ronny Verdon, who will be two years old on June 14, was rushed to Gulfport Memorial after suffering severe head injuries on June 1, explains why the story did not get in last week's Echo. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Verdon, three daughters and one son, are native New Orleanians who moved to Shoreline Park fairly recently. Last Sunday night the family was taking a walk on a little used road in the subdivision. Mr. Verdon leading a small pony upon which Ronny and his three year-old sister Rosalind were strapped to the saddle. A speeding car suddenly roared down the usually deserted road frightening the pony, which reared, broke the reins, and dashed into the thick undergrowth of the woods. Rosalind, who was seated behind Ronny, escaped with scratches and bruises, but Ronny was slammed into low hanging branches and trees. His condition is listed as critical -- he has a fractured skull, blood clot on the brain, fluid in the brain, is paralyzed on his left side, and faces the possibility of a major brain operation. The identity of the driver of the automobile causing the near fatal mishap is not known, and the Verdon's were so occupied in an attempt to control the terrified animal that they were unable to give a description of the vehicle.

ANIMAL VOTES - This week we have lots of puppies free for just the asking and the promise of a good home. Margie and Hap Carter's dachshund managed to get overly friendly with a cocker spaniel and the resulting cocker-dachs are just about the cutest canines imaginable. Two are still available. Mrs. Corinne Nelson of Jeff Davis Avenue has eight healthy puppies in need of homes, and we know of one four-year-old in a 12 German shepherd that may soon be searching for a new owner possessing a large fenced yard.

THE MYSTERY poodle which appeared as if by magic in Delores (Mrs. Norton, Jr.) Haas' yard several weeks ago, vanished just as suddenly and as mysteriously as it arrived. Delores has decided that the owner needed a haven for his pet, and she was the obvious choice as a free dog sitter while his master or mistress was apparently vacationing.

MR. AND MRS. E.E. HEREFORD of Oak Boulevard, Waveland, have been informed that their son Seaman Apprentice Scott Hereford, 17, is the youngest Naval Boot Camp graduate ever to have been selected to attend electronic school in San Francisco.

COMPLAINT DEPT. - Day after day we hold our breath as tiny tots toddle back and forth across Beach Boulevard lacking even a semblance of adult supervision. We'd always thought that parents were just kidding when instructing their kiddies to "go play in traffic," but now we're beginning to wonder!

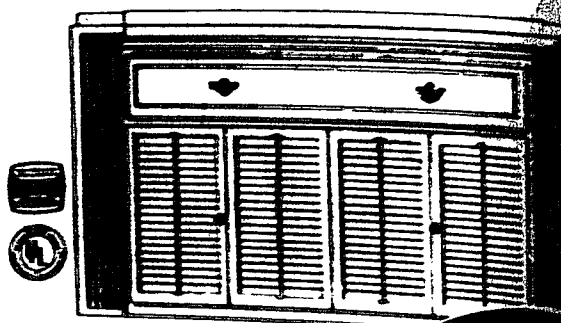

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - The bright, white lights of flounders stalking their elusive prey nightly; gaily colored inflated beach paraphernalia bobbing about in the blue-green water; a long, long, long freight train, halted for a purpose known only to its engineer, blocking traffic at crossings from the Bay Bridge almost to Lahore and the intermittent, futile beeps of automobile horns as their frustrated drivers register wasted sounds of protest.

A LIGHT SHINES in the CHURCH WINDOWS

What do you think of...
when you see a Church?

To almost everyone, the sight of a slender steeple raised to the sky evokes certain emotions—awe, perhaps, nostalgia, maybe—the sense that by not going to church lately, you've been missing something!

Next time you see a church, take a good look... and let yourself really feel what you see. If that makes you decide not only to look at the outside but also to go inside, that will be all to the good. For no matter how lovely a home you may live in, it can't compare with God's House. If you open the door, you'll find that, no matter how long you've been away, the welcome is warmer and more wonderful than you'll find anywhere else.

KANTCHA KETCHUM
By L.S. (Doc) Elliott
Perfect weather and tides couldn't have been better than over the weekend. Both fresh and salt water fish were caught at different places. Soft crabs were giving and some nice catches were reported. A few flounders were speared mostly when the tides began to rise. Falling tides starting Sunday made fly fishing and casting extra good. Pearl River and most tributaries now have excellent water and the perch and bass were really striking. There are plenty of frogs and gassing has come into its own. The frogs are of good size. Streams are full of them. Catching frogs is a real sport. Speaking of frogs John Scafile, Jr. caught one while fly fishing, to his surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ne-calse both love to fish. Leroy is home from the U.S. Army and they are getting their share of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeBen do quite a bit of fishing, crabbing and golfing. Fred's fishing partner is Eldon Gilly. They go on every occasion.

Rod Murphy is making good use of his 24 foot Lafitte pleasure boat. The boat is ideal for fishing. Rod shares it with his fishing buddies.

Was a pleasure to see Clyde Ladner, Floyd Ladner, Dud Ladner, Glynn Ladner, Rena Lee, and Bill Anderson out at the Keys fishing for the speckles. These fishermen hail from Nacaise Crossing up in the County. They hunt when the hunting seasons are open. They are all good at both sports. Keep coming down, fellows.

Frank V. Ryder lives at Cedar Point. He loves fishing and says he is going at it in a big way.

We learn things every day. Thomas LaFontaine, an old timer at fishing told us a good way to catch perch and bass. Take spaghetti and cook it just a little bit. Cut in small pieces and use it as bait on a perch pole. It will catch fish he claims.

Roy Strong, Leroy Strong, Clarence Carrio and Louis Doucet all with the Telephone Co., spent a week's vacation at the Bay. All but Doucet are local men. They now work in Columbus, Miss., Lafayette, La. and Mobile, Ala.

They spent most of their time fishing on the Keys and at the marshes. They were bragging about having ten cases of beer and one loaf of bread. The bread must have been really soaked. Can't catch fish that a way, buddies. They did make some nice catches, however.

Charles Staehle and Bob Wade with their wives made a nice catch of speckles Saturday. They were on Charlie's boat. All are good fishermen.

Sidney Caroo who lives on Blue Meadow Road spends his off time fishing, crabbing and hunting. He is an old timer at these sports, and gets his share of game and fish.

Bobbie Kelly gets her share of fish, hard and soft crabs. There is no better sports, she claims.

Mrs. Lois Maurigi says she does her soft crabbing in the day time. That's possible when the tide is right. Crabs shed when they are ready, either night or day, believe it or not.

Harold Saucier, Jerry Corr and Carl Thibadeaux caught a No. 2 wash tub of hard crabs. The crabs fell off the trucked up traffic, were recovered and made a nice crab boil. Things like this do happen.

Was sorry to hear of the death of Willie Rudolph over the weekend. He was a real fisherman and the brother of son Rudolph.

Joe Glover and family are spending a week's vacation at the Bay. Joe had a good time meeting his friends, fishing and crabbing. It was good to be back home, he said.

John Scafile, Jr. returned to college Saturday after spending a week with his parents. John got in some fishing, golf and crabbing while here.

Wop Glover put his reconditioned skiff overboard over the weekend. He expects to use it plenty this summer.

The water in East Pearl has finally cleared and some big bass are being caught there daily.

Old Henpecked said: Con-science is that which prompts a man to tell his wife before somebody else does.

MR. AND MRS. FLOYD WILLIAMS AND SON OF GULFPORT ACCEPT DELIVERY OF THEIR NEW CHEVETTE FROM LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN J. C. KOENEN.

Mr. Floyd Williams operator of A-One All Pest Control Service in Gulfport was in need of a car for service to his customers in his business. He shopped all over the coast and couldn't get the deal he was looking for. He visited the St. Louis and was greeted by salesman J.C. Koenen of Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. J.C. got together with Mr. Williams and was able to fix a deal that he just couldn't pass up. A Chevelle which was just the car he needed for his business. Mr. Williams was very much impressed with the special service given him by J.C. Koenen, and he recommends J.C. highly to all of his friends. In need of a new car, truck or station wagon, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis and ask for J. C. Koenen and save money. (A GERRY LANE ENTERPRISE) MR. FLOYD WILLIAMS, Gulfport, Miss.

B-WYC Represented By Local Boys

Woody Steffel and crew, Mark Egan and David Gillespie will represent Bay-Waveland Yacht Club in the quarter finals of the Junior Sears Sailing Fish class championship July 12 and 13 at Southern Yacht Club, New Orleans.

Woody and his crew finished third in the district competition Saturday and Sunday at New Orleans Club.

Johnny Potts of Southern Yacht Club finished first with 20 1/4 points; John Pittard New Orleans Club, was second with 16 1/4 points; Woody, third, 13 1/4 points; David Sawyer, Pass Christian Club, fourth, 13 points.

Clifton Piazza Jr. is so proud of the 6 pound bass he caught that he is having the fish mounted. Six pounders are rather scarce hereabouts.

It has been rather hot to go out on a boat. Old Sol has been beating down the green head flies and have been "you know what." The best time to go is early in the morning or late in the afternoon. Fish don't usually hit in the middle of the day, anyhow.

There is beautiful fishing in East Pearl River. The big trees on either side of the river furnish some shade and there is usually a slight breeze blowing. Fish are found both up and down from the bridge on Hwy. 90. You can fish both sides of the river with a Miss. or La. license.

Boiled crabs, crawfish and shrimp can be purchased from the Show Boat on Jordan River and they are mighty good. You can also eat them aboard the boat.

The Bayou La Croix Marina was a busy place over the weekend with folks swimming, boating, skiing and fishing. It is out on the Kiln road on Bayou La Croix.

If you want to get run over go to Half Moon over the weekend. There were over 1 hundred boats around the island with some fishermen, some not fishermen and plenty of boat riders. Go during the week if you want to catch fish. Fish were knocking themselves out hitting propellers.

Shad Rigs are paying off when the trout are striking. Using just one shad rig saves a lot of tangling up.

VFW Ladies Held Meeting May 22

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of World War One, Hancock County Barracks held their regular monthly meeting on May 22, in the American Legion Home. Mrs. Mildred Hindelang was installed as Junior Vice President. Plans were made for attending the State Convention, or Department Convention, to be held in Jackson, Miss., on June 18, and 20. A large delegation will be going from here. This auxiliary has increased its membership to the extent that it is in line for a citation.

The ladies have worked very hard to make this possible, but have not been able to contact every one so they are asking all wives and widows of World War One Veterans to call the president, Mrs. Irvy Chapping, at 467-5750, if interested in joining this group.

Hostesses for the May meeting were Mrs. Walter Hava and daughter, June, and Mrs. Edwina Mogabgab. A most delicious snack was enjoyed by all, including the brides, and veterans.
